

Resolution from the Skamania County Republican Central Committee Censure of Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler

WHEREAS, Articles of impeachment against President Donald J. Trump were filed and voted on by the members of the U.S. House of Representatives with no formal hearings held, no quantifiable evidence presented, no witnesses sworn to give testimony, and no right to cross examine the accusers provided; and

WHEREAS, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court is obligated by Article I, Section 3, Clause 6 of the US Constitution to preside over impeachment trials, and Chief Justice John Roberts declined to preside over the impeachment trial in the U.S. Senate, indicating an unwillingness of the Supreme Court to lend legitimacy to this impeachment proceeding; and

WHEREAS, Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler did vote in favor of the impeachment of President Donald J. Trump despite the lack of any formal hearing being held, evidence being presented, witnesses being sworn to testify, or accusers being questioned; and

WHEREAS, Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler cast her vote without any quantifiable evidence of High Crimes or Misdemeanors; and

WHEREAS, Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler was elected by a majority of Washington's Third Congressional District to represent the will, the values, and the stated preferences of the majority of said voters; and

WHEREAS, Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler has violated the trust of her voters, failed to faithfully represent the majority of Skamania County voters, and neglected her duty to represent the Republican Party and the will of the people in the Third Congressional District, who elected her to represent them. The consequence of

Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler's actions has resulted in Republicans of Skamania County, the Third Congressional District, Washington State, and the United States, indicating that they will either no longer actively participate in the Republican Party, or have cancelled their donations to the Republican Party, and withdrawn their support, rendering themselves Independent voters, because of, or as long as, Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler holds office; and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, The Skamania County Republican Central Committee does hereby censure Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler of the Third Congressional District of Washington State for her actions on Wednesday, January 13, 2021, for voting in favor of a process that eliminated investigation and public hearings, provided no evidence to consider, called no witnesses to be sworn, and allowed none of the accusers to be questioned by the accused; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, The Skamania County Republican Central Committee will withhold any future political funding and support of all resources for Congresswoman Jaime Herrera Beutler; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, The Skamania County Republican Central Committee will work together, whole and unified, in conjunction with the other six counties of the Third Congressional District - Lewis County, Pacific County, Wahkiakum County, Cowlitz County, Clark County, Klickitat County, and southern Thurston County - to vet and select a conservative Republican candidate to run for the Third Congressional seat in the 2022 congressional race.

This resolution was passed by the Skamania County Republican Central Committee on Thursday, February 25, 2021
